1 Timothy 1:17

Ecclesiastes 7:15-29

¹⁵ I have seen everything during my days of vanity; there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in his evildoing. ¹⁶ Do not be excessively righteous, and do not be overly wise. Why should you make yourself desolate? ¹⁷ Do not be excessively wicked, and do not be a simpleminded fool. Why should you die before your time? ¹⁸ It is good that you seize one thing and also not let go of the other; for the one who fears God comes forth with both of them. ¹⁹ Wisdom strengthens a wise man more than ten men with power who are in a city. ²⁰ Indeed, there is not a righteous man on earth who continually does good and who never sins. ²¹ Also, do not give your heart to all words which are spoken, so that you will not hear your slave cursing you. ²² For your heart also knows that you likewise have many times cursed others. ²³ I tested all this with wisdom, and I said, "I will be wise," but it was far from me. ²⁴ What has been is far away and exceedingly deep. Who can find it? ²⁵ I turned my heart to know, to explore, and to seek wisdom and an explanation, and to know the wickedness of foolishness and the simpleminded folly of madness. ²⁶ And I found more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, whose hands are chains. One who is good before God will escape from her, but the sinner will be captured by her. ²⁷ "See, I have found this," says the Preacher, "adding one thing to another to find an explanation, ²⁸ which my soul still seeks but has not found. I have found one man out of a thousand, but I have not found a woman among all these. ²⁹ See, I have found only this, that God made men upright, but they have sought out many devices."
